Halloween Kentucky Style

By: Charles Suddeth

For Halloween 1959, Mike and Timmy try to trick their cousins, Alice and Rose. The trick is on them when a homeless man and their nine-year-old neighbor team up to give them a Halloween scare that they will never forget.

Praise for Halloween Kentucky Style

“This book is not only a great read for kids, but for adults who are still kids at heart and still love Halloween. It's fun, it's spooky, and takes us back to a time when kids could roam the earth, parent-free, in search of an adventure.” –Sean McHugh, co-author of Broomsticks
